2020 ROYAL SHOW – NEW DATE

The Royal Agricultural Society has set a new date for the 2020 Royal Show; this being 24 July through 2 August.

To the extent that most major role-players have confirmed their availability, it is envisaged that the occasion will be a 'cut and paste' replication of that planned for May.

Whilst these dates are dependent on how the Coronavirus plays out, the Society is cautiously optimistic that conditions will be favourable to host the event.
